

ALEXANDRA SHOVLIN | BALLET. JAZZ. CONTEMPORARY

Alex grew up in Urbana Maryland and started dancing and gymnastics around the age of two years old. She began dancing competitively at the age of five. She has trained in ballet, pointe, jazz, hip hop, tap, contemporary, modern and ballroom. Alex trained at Urbana Dance Studio and Metropolitan Ballet Theater for the majority of her adolescence. Then decided to take her dance journey across borders to Canada and trained at the Canadian Dance Company where she expanded her dance education. She attended Wilfred Laurier University in Ontario Canada where she was a choreographer, an executive member and co-captain for the Laurier Competitive Dance Team.

Alex is excited to be back at Urbana Dance as a teacher and mentor.
