

BRITNEY HALL

Britney Hall is a professional dancer, ACE certified personal trainer and dance instructor based in The DC metropolitan area and Los Angeles.

Britney grew up in Alexandria, Virginia and started dancing at the age of 6. She started off with styles including jazz, ballet, tap, hip hop, lyrical and then eventually expanding to styles including contemporary, jazz funk, and acro. She was committed to competing all over the country throughout grade school, where she would be awarded various high score awards and hold many regional and national titles. She had the opportunity to attend Virginia's Governor's School at The University of Richmond as a Sophomore in High School, where she majored as a dancer. After her high school dance career she moved off to attend Columbia College Chicago where she again majored in dance. Dance has always been a vital part of Britney's life, she knew that she wanted to pursue it in an even bigger way, that is when she made the decision to move to Los Angeles at 19 years old to follow her dream as a professional dancer. Now she is traveling all over the world fulfilling that dream.
