

JESS GARY | HIP HOP

Jess, born and raised in Baltimore, Maryland, started dancing competitively at the age of 6. At the rightful age of 16, she started choreographing for dance companies in the Maryland area. She soon discovered her passion for choreography and opened a professional dance company at the age of 19. She later moved to Los Angeles to pursue her passion in the dance world. Her work has been seen on AGT, WOD, Indie Films, and One of her biggest accomplishments was making the top 4 of "Make a Moves" next choreographer. She has taught at many world renown studios in the industry including Brickhouse NYC & Millennium dance complex in LA.

Her goal as a choreographer and teacher is for dancers to find their own individuality and artist within themselves. She enjoys training the next generation of working dancers in hopes of helping them achieve their goals in the dance industry.