

MELO LUDWIG | TAP. BALLET. JAZZ

Melo Ludwig is a dancer and actress, who recently returned to the DC area after spending 7 years in New York City. While there, she was a member of Shuffles Tap Company lead by Artistic Director, Shelby Kaufman. Dancing since she was 2, Melo is classically trained and has extensively studied ballet, pointe, tap, jazz, contemporary, Horton, and hip hop. She has performed in many prestigious theaters from the Park Avenue Armory in New York City to The Kennedy Center in Washington, DC. Also an actress, Melo can be seen in feature films and many television shows, one on which she had the pleasure of working with two-time Emmy winning choreographer, Kat Burns.

Melo loves teaching kids of all ages and is currently on faculty at several studios in the DC area.
